Truth or Lies - Which am I believing?

We all long to be fully known and fully loved, but sometimes we believe lies about God, ourselves, and others that prohibit love from penetrating our hearts. Come along with us as we delve into sneaky lies that teenage girls may face. Through the power of Jesus living inside of us and through Scripture, we can replace those lies with truth.

My husband Ivan and I have been married 4 years and run an appliance repair business together. I love to travel, try new food, read, and play ball. I desire most that my life be one of service to my Father God. I want to encourage other women to embrace who God has created them to be, to be bold and courageous and willing to step out in faith for whatever our Lord calls them to.

I am a minister's wife of 21 years and a mother of 4 amazing daughters. My passion is helping young ladies reach their full potential in being daughters of the King. I love spending time with my family, young people and our very miniature farm!
